WELCOME TO EDINBURGH GREENS'

BIG BURNS NIGHT IN

Hosted by Lorna Slater, co-leader, Scottish Greens

Saturday 23 January 2021
Doors open 5.30 for 6pm start
Haggis piped in at 6.15pm

USING ZOOM

THE STAGE is where Lorna is hosting our speakers and performers.

LOUNGE ROOMS are our name for Zoom's Break-Out Rooms.

When the Lounge Rooms are open you should see this icon in the bottom of your Zoom screen on the black bar. Please tap/click on it, then select the room you want to move to.

Lounge rooms will automatically countdown one minute before the start of each new session to give you time to say your goodbyes before you are whisked back to The Stage without even leaving your seat.

Please stay 'on mute' for the THE STAGE, but blether to your heart's content in the LOUNGE ROOMS (apart from when poets and musicians are performing).

NB You can ask for help to move at any point by asking one of the tech volunteers (e.g. Tech Jim; Tech Katri) using the chat Zoom function. Please check you've upgraded to the latest (free) version of Zoom before Big Burns Night In to fully enable breakout rooms (Lounge Rooms).

LOUNGE ROOMS

At each break you can leave the screen to eat, or choose a lounge room. You can stay in your lounge room OR excuse yourself and move yourself to any other.

5.30 to 6.00pm Join one of the local conversations with friends in the lounge rooms.
6.45 to 7.15pm

8.00 to 8.30pm You can join one of the activities in the hosted lounge rooms such as the Poetry, Quiz and Games Rooms, or join one of the 'pub rooms' for chat, named after some of Burns' poems.

9.00 to 9.45pm The rooms stay open for informal chat, poetry, music, political mastery and hearty blether until we come back together for the prize draw and farewell by Lorna at about 9.45pm.

DON'T FORGET TO BUY YOUR TICKETS FOR THE PRIZE DRAW!

THANKS

Many many thanks to all the speakers, performers, prize donors and volunteers who've done so much to put this on.

And thanks to The Birnam Quartet for use of their 'The Music of Burns' album.
